About Me:

Since my parents died in a fire, my dad's brother wanted to steal my family fortune. The mayors made us live at his house. He was the meanest uncle you could ever have. He made us do his laundry and made us sleep in the addict in one room. We were like slaves. But now I'm at my mom's brother's house. He's like the nicest uncle. He's nicer than my other uncle by a long shot. This uncle is a scientist. He studies snakes. He even has a reptile room. He also is going to take us to Peru to catch the venom snake. He also lets me read all of his books about snakes.
